PowerPoint® Tips & Tricks Illustrating Your Message with Multimedia

Which computers, remotes and projectors are best for travel, all about AV carts, microphones, PA systems, labeling computers to speed setup, backup equipment, and more.

Troubleshooting when things go wrong.
Multimedia tips: where to find photographs, drawings, animations, videos and sounds.

Customizing your show for your audience, how to include your notes so that you do not leave out important messages, stories and facts. What your audience wants for handouts. Plus packing and air travel tips for professional speakers.

This is not your usual 'how to use' or 'introduction' to PowerPoint. This program contains easy-to-understand and fascinating secrets that could only come from a road warrior who relies on projecting his program. Fascinating and fun.

Dan Poynter is an author of more than 120 books, has been a publisher since 1969 and is a Certified Speaking Professional (CSP). His seminars have been featured on CNN, his books have been pictured in The Wall Street Journal and his story has been told in US News & World Report. He has shared his message with every International Speaking Federation Association and nearly every speaking chapter in the U.S., Canada, U.K., Australia, New Zealand and South Africa.
